

Ginette Muller

About Ginette

Ginette is a member of the Advisory Board for the Centre for Enterprise Governance with Bond University and a board member of the Association of Independent Insolvency Practitioners. In addition to holding an ASIC registration as an insolvency practitioner, Ginette is a MIPA, a member of CAANZ and in 2022, she will complete her Juris Doctor with the University of Southern Queensland.

With over 25 years experience in commercial advisory, Ginette has been involved in all aspects of management, compliance and consultancy. Her experience as a corporate advisor has continued to evolve during this time, including various senior positions with major Australian and international accounting firms.

Restructuring

Formal or informal processes where a Company maximises its chances of continuing in existence; or if that isn't possible, restructuring can involve solutions that are better for the company's stakeholders than cessation of trading.

Director Advocacy

Providing advice and that extra set of eyes - especially when dealing with insolvency practitioners who generally must put the interests of other stakeholders ahead of directors.

Safe Harbour

Protection given to Directors when there is a possibility of financial distress looming so as not to trigger the unnecessary appointment of a liquidator.

General Advisory

Tax debt negotiations, crisis management, compliance reporting and finance reviews.
